

Cookie Collection Policy

Google Analytics

The web analytics service is provided by Google Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics also uses "cookies" - text files stored on your computer that allow you to analyze your use of the website. The information generated by the cookie about the use of this website by site visitors is usually transmitted to a Google server in the USA and stored there. This is also our legitimate interest in accordance with paragraph 1 of Article 6 paragraph 1 f) GDPR. Google has joined the privacy agreement between the European Union and the USA and is certified. As a result, Google agrees to comply with the standards and regulations of European data protection law. Additional information can be found here - <https://www.privacyshield.gov/participant?id=a2zt000000001L5AAI&status=Active>. We have activated the anonymization of IP addresses on this website (anonymizelp). As a result, your IP address will be preliminarily truncated by Google in the member states of the European Union or in other participating states of the Agreement on the European Economic Area. Only in exceptional cases will the full IP address be sent to a Google server in the USA and shortened there. Google will use this information on our behalf to evaluate your use of the website, to compile reports on website activity, and to provide us with other services related to website activity and internet usage. The IP address provided by Google Analytics as part of Google Analytics will not be merged with other Google data. You can prevent the storage of cookies by using the appropriate setting of your browser software. However, please note that in this case, you may not be able to use all the functions of this website to the fullest extent possible. In addition, you can prevent the transmission of data generated by the cookie and related to your use of the website (including your IP address) to Google and the processing of these data by Google by downloading and installing the browser plug-in available here - <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en>.
